PROPERTY FEATURES

A triumph of design, luxury and seclusion: 10 Bedroom development fit for any usage - with Kruger Park

This beautifully architect designed multi-purpose home, marrying state of the art with earthy lifestyle elements, offer spacious open-plan living,

A triumph of design, luxury and seclusion.

Exquisite mountain views from the top storey, Kruger National Park front, abound with the delightful courtyard features - adjoining the indoor living and dining areas - flowing to the entertainment side of the property.

10 bedrooms en suite, set on a beautiful treed landscaped 4000 plus square meter stand.

The development truly is encapsulating what Kruger Park front living is about: privacy, space, ample natural light, and serenity.

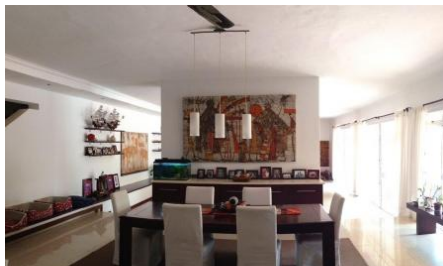

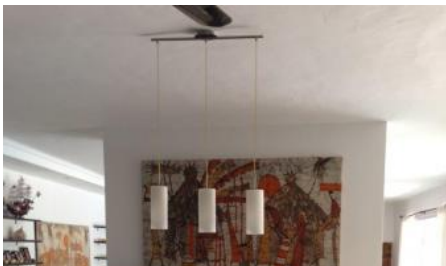

The zoning of the property is special, yielding opportunistic scope for the investor, who could with little effort utilize the property for up market hospitality purposes and/or offices, or merely lifestyle living.

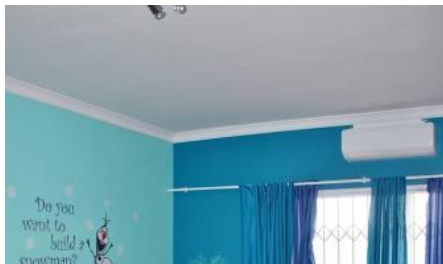

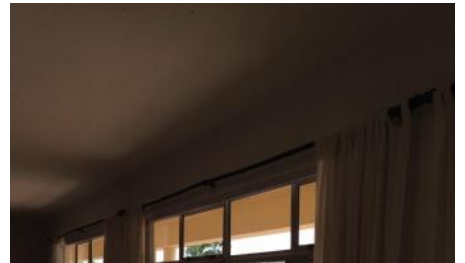

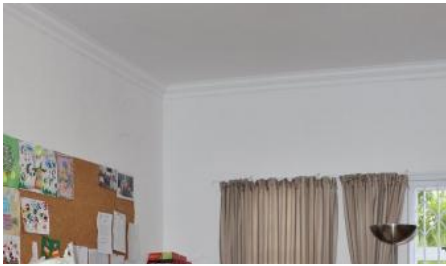

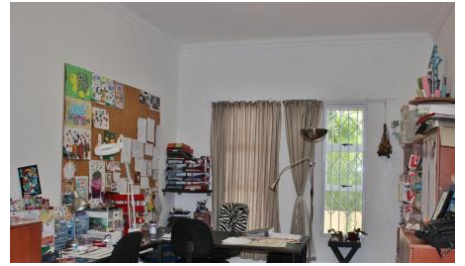

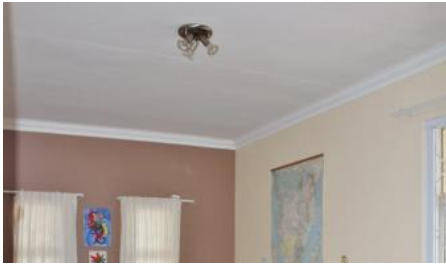

Generous staff accommodation exists in the separate 3 bedroom unit inclusive of an en suite bedroom and kitchen.

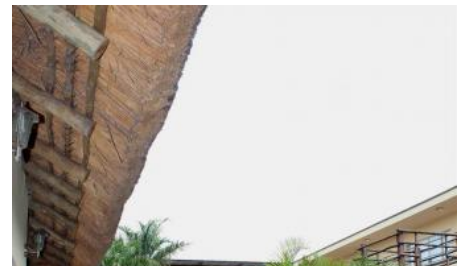

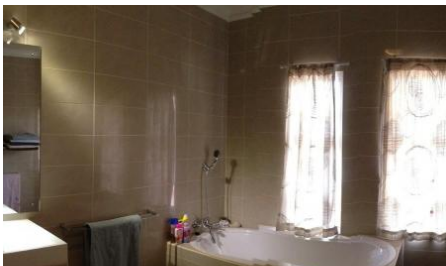

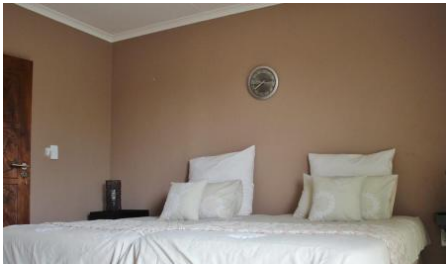

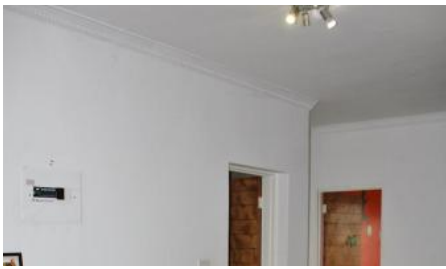

Additional to this plot, adjacent two properties belonging to the same owner, could also be acquired. Particulars available on request.
