PROPERTY FEATURES

Villa Amaze is an outstanding five bedroom, six bathroom Villa boasting 1,700sqm of stylish living. The Villa has been expertly designed to set the scene for the uninterrupted expanse of ocean that unfolds for what seems like an eternity. This simply incredible view is visible from every room within the villa providing a truly magnificent setting throughout. Boasting a truly unique setting, the magic is capitalized on by the abundance of glass that opens fully to the fresh air and extensive terraces. The grand open-air layout of the main living area is fitted with oversized couches, while the lovely dining table seats up to a party of ten. Built into a natural rock formation, the kitchen is minimalist in style, yet is fully equipped with high-end appliances and includes a waterfall top island for ample prep space and easy serving. A pool table and sitting area are tucked into a window wrapped nook while still being part of the massive common area, keeping the good times rolling with plenty of recreational activities for everyone in your group. To the left of the entrance, a stylish curved staircase leads upward to the private principal wing.

A lily pond greets you at the landing before solid wood doors open to beckon you within the lavish depths of this secluded sea-view oasis. Dramatic views make a grand statement in this palatial suite with private balcony accessed from the bedroom as well as the dedicated en-suite bath and grand sun terrace. To the other side of the principal bedroom is the oversized en-suite bath with marvelous no-threshold shower, relaxing soaking tub and direct garden access that winds back to the entrance courtyard. At the opposite end of the villa, likewise claiming its own upper wing, is a lovely guest bedroom, isolated from the main areas with sliding glass doors that flow out to a private balcony. This room is fitted with built-in seating, custom vanity/desk, walk-in robe and en-suite bath that pampers with rainfall shower, freestanding tub and streamlined double basin sink.

The villa's main terrace extends from the home toward the sea for sun-splashed days and balmy nights overlooking an endlessly captivating seascape. An infinity edge pool and spa with water feature stretches toward the horizon, while elegant built-in seating beside the pool invites you to bask in a tropical sun-soaked aspect in posh comfort. To the other side of the pool is a voluminous outdoor patio with seamless glass railings that can effortlessly accommodate weddings and other sizeable events. Salty fresh sea breezes flow through the open-concept interior to a second upper terrace, where a private exterior staircase leads down through an enchanting "secret garden" with secluded sitting area and into a separate third bedroom suite that opens wide to the sumptuous ocean views via glass doors. Entirely unique in position, set on a hillside with flat lands of lush gardens and sprawling lawns, Villa Amaze is an astonishing property ensuring breath-taking views both day and night, even during the rain! One-of-a-kind architecture and bespoke elements grace this sophisticated villa with views starting from the gated entrance with double parking, straight into the open air living area with floor-to-ceiling folding glass doors and windows that grant mesmerizing views from every possible angle. Truly amazing! Yet even more, just beyond the sanctuary of your Chaweng Noi villa is a wonderful offering of activities, amenities and stunning beaches to ensure your every need – every whim – is met in abundance.
